DIRECTOR'S CORNER

It's spring and the weather is gorgeous! For me, spring fever has set in and I can't decide whether to plant some vegetables or plant my bottom on the seat of my bike. Everything that I do is centered around "getting it done" so that I can ride free from mental obligations and feel the wind on my face and the engine of my Street Glide rumbling beneath me. So next Thursday I leave my obligations behind and set my mind to the Cajun HOG Rally in Scott, Louisiana where I plan on riding, dancing the Cajun two-step and eating me some cracklins and boudin. Want to join me? If you haven't made hotel reservations, you can still come for the day. It's about a three hour ride from Slidell so leave early. I will meet you there.
